
BEST ACADEMY- PRIVACY POLICY

Why we need your personal information:

We need to collect academy participants' personal information so that we can process and manage your participation with us in term time, holiday camps and during tournament trips. We will use our participants' personal information to:

- Process your due payments and record said payments on our accounting computer system
- Send you communications in relation to essential aspects of academy participation, including but not limited to training and camp logistics, academy events and activities, benefits of academy players

We are under a legal obligation to process certain personal information relating to our members, paid staff and volunteers for the purposes of complying with our obligations under:

- the Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Scotland) Act 2007 to check that our coaches and volunteers are able to undertake regulated work with children and vulnerable adults

We will need to process certain personal information relating to our participants, paid staff and volunteers for the purposes of ensuring that anyone engaged in activities at the club has their vital interests protected, namely:

- We require details of any relevant medical condition that may have an impact on that person's health and well-being whilst they are participating in activities at the academy

We process our participants' personal information in pursuit of our legitimate interests to promote and encourage participation for all ages and abilities in Squash by:

- Sending communications to participants for upcoming competitions, events and opportunities to compete for the academy by email
- Filming and photographing club events and activities for use on social media, the club website, leaflets and posters

Where we process your personal information in pursuit of our legitimate interests, you have the right to object to us using your personal information for the above purposes. If you wish to object to any of the above processing, please contact us on info@best-academy or the contact number below.
